Knowland Predicts Defeat of Jury Trial Amendment

PINEAU JOINS DULLES-LLOYD CONFERENCE

By ARTHUR GAYSHON

London (P) — French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau flew to London today for disarmament talks with Secretary of State Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd amid reports that the Allies are divided on the advisability and ways of making nuclear cutbacks.

The British government has expressed opposition to halting immediately the testing of its newly developed H-bombs. And France has made clear that so long as nuclear weapon production continues, it wants to get in the British-Soviet-U. S. nuclear inner circle by developing its own weapons.

Officials indicated that the detailed consideration of these problems would have to be kicked up to the three heads of government for possible solutions.

Dulles put in a busy day yesterday conferring both with Western officials and Soviet disarmament delegate Valerian Zorin. Representatives of the five U. S. Disarmament subcommittee nations—Britain, France, Russia, Canada and the United States—got together for a working luncheon which Dulles attended.

The five delegations approved a noncommittal report for the U. N. parent Disarmament Commission to meet the Aug. 1 deadline it had set the subcommittee. Informants said the report made no mention of a recess in the talks and there was general agreement that the negotiations could be continued.

The decision to continue the subcommittee sessions apparently represented something of a victory for Dulles. British and French officials for some weeks had been talking openly of an early adjournment because they felt the chance for real progress had vanished.

Senate Committee Investigates New Ceylon Ambassador

Washington (P) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee arranged a closed session today to hear how Maxwell H. Gluck was picked to be the new ambassador to Ceylon.

Undersecretary of State Christian Herter was summoned to tell about the State Department's selection of the 57-year-old businessman and horse breeder for the diplomatic post. He also was expected to discuss general policies on such appointments.

Gluck, who has said he contributed to the Republican campaign fund in 1952 and 1956, was confirmed by the Senate July 8.

Controversy over the appointment was touched on several days ago with publication of a partial transcript of a Foreign Relations Committee hearing at which Gluck's nomination was approved.

The transcript indicated Gluck was not familiar with the names of the prime ministers of Ceylon or India, and that he did not know Ceylon had signed a U. N. subcommittee report on Russia's intervention in Hungary.

At a press conference yesterday, Gluck said he had been briefed by the State Department.

Stalemate in Senate Delays Payment of August Payrolls In Several Federal Agencies

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

Washington (P) — The Senate voted 89-0 today to take up for final action a bill carrying money to run the armed services in the 12 months which started July 1.

It did so shortly after the White House said the Defense Department and other agencies might not be able to meet their August payrolls unless the Senate acted on pending money bills stymied by the civil rights debate.

Approval of the motion to take up the defense appropriation bill temporarily displaced the civil rights bill. But it will automatically become the pending business again when the Senate completes action on the Defense money bill.

The plan was to adopt a similar procedure for the Agriculture Department money bill. Both are compromise versions already passed by the House and needing only a final Senate okay to send them to the White House. Neither faced major opposition.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty described the statement as one simply setting out the situation that exists.

But the practical effect appeared to be to put White House influence behind moves in the Senate to place the civil rights bill aside temporarily in order to act on money measures.

At the Capitol, Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said the supporters of the bill are willing to lay it aside to provide urgently needed cash for the Defense and Agriculture departments.

"I think we can pass both of them promptly," Knowland said.

Action on these two compromise annual money bills would permit a prompt return to the civil rights dispute as soon as they are passed. However, there would be no limit upon debate on the money bills.

Democratic Leader Johnson of Texas said he would ask the Senate to act on the money bills during the day but was uncertain just when he would make that move.

The White House statement took note that the Small Business Administration is officially out of business as a result of the Senate's failure to authorize its continuance after last midnight. It added:

"Meanwhile, the agency has no authority to grant any new loans. As to the Defense Department, the White House statement said:

"There is no legal authority to meet services rendered by about 1,250,000 civilian employees of the department and about 2,800,000 military personnel. Military disbursing officers throughout the world will have no authority to pay servicemen being mustered out of service."

Hagerty was asked if this meant no funds would be available to meet August payrolls.

"That question is being looked into," Hagerty replied. He added it might be possible to shift funds (Turn to Page Fifteen)

Secretary Talks Boss Out of Suicide Attempt

New York (P) — A secretary quickly talked her boss out of an apparent suicide attempt yesterday after police vainly tried to get the man to leave his precarious perch on a railing around a 22nd-story airshaft.

George Wind, 62, head of the Goldenbro textile firm in the garment district, clung to the railing for about 45 minutes while police vainly tried to get him off. He talked of "having business troubles."

Meanwhile, a net was being spread across the shaft at a lower floor.

Then his secretary, Mrs. Rose Williams, appeared. "Mr. Wind," she said, "what are you doing up there? Come on down."

Mrs. Williams extended her hand. Wind meekly took it and scrambled to safety.

Papers Reveal 1940 Nazi Plot To Put Windsor Back in Power

By WARREN ROGERS JR.

Washington (P) — A grandiose Nazi plot in 1940 to put the Duke of Windsor back on the British throne—at a price—has been revealed in top-secret German documents captured by the Allies and just made public.

The papers are among 415 German messages and reports unveiled last night simultaneously by the U. S. State Department and the British Foreign Office.

They also report a $250,000 payment by an American oilman to Democratic groups with the aim of blocking then President Franklin D. Roosevelt's renomination. Of this, $160,000 allegedly went for "buying" Pennsylvania's convention votes.

The British government labeled the documents as "necessarily a much tainted source." It said Windsor "never wavered in his loyalty to the British cause." The duke called the part about him "complete fabrication and . . . gross distortions of truth."

The Democratic National Committee said it had no record of any such contributions as were mentioned in the Nazi papers. And it noted Pennsylvania cast all of its 72 votes for Roosevelt "on the first and only presidential ballot" that year.

The German documents cover the period June 23-Aug. 31, 1940. France had fallen in a six-week blitzkrieg. Britain braced for invasion. The United States was divided—intervene or stay out? A prime aim of Adolph Hitler's policy was to keep America neutral.

In the papers, published as part of an historical project to illumine Hitler's years, 1933-45, Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop emerges as the mastermind of the Duke of Windsor plot. Ribbentrop later was hanged as a war criminal.

Dio Bodyguard Key Witness In Hoffa Probe

BULLETIN

Washington (P) — A former union official testified today New York racketeer Johnny Dio once was employed by the International Ladies Garment Workers Union to help organize a Roanoke, Va., plant. Lester Washburn, former president of the old AFL United Auto Workers—now named the Allied Industrial Workers in the AFL-CIO—gave the testimony to the Senate Rackets Committee. The date of Dio's alleged employment for the Roanoke job was not brought out specifically, but it was indicated it was around 1950.

By G. MILTON KELLY

Washington (P) — Racketeer Johnny Dio's former bodyguard, 240-pound, barrel-chested Teddy Rij, goes before the Senate Rackets Committee today as perhaps a key witness.

The committee is hearing evidence which Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) said will show that Teamsters Union boss James R. Hoffa, in a corrupt deal with Dio, sought and may have achieved "stranglehold" power over the Port of New York and "the entire Eastern Seaboard."

In San Francisco, Hoffa said he is "ready, willing and able" to answer committee questions.

Rij, who pronounces and usually spells his last name as "Ray," is under indictment with Dio on conspiracy charges linked with the acid blinding of labor columnist Victor Riesel. He is listed now as an officer of the Acme Dress Co. of Midvale, N. J.

Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy said that before calling Ray, he may take testimony from Lester Washburn, the onetime head of the old United Auto Workers and a bitter foe of Dio.

Kennedy told the committee yesterday that Washburn's efforts to push Dio and underworld henchmen out of the UAW-AFL cost Washburn his job as the union's president.

Kennedy said Ray will be asked for the inside story of the formation of UAW-AFL Local 102 in New York. Sam Zakman, former president of that local, swore yesterday that he had been squeezed out by Dio and his hoodlums.

In one hilarious interlude, Zakman, a self-styled former Communist, told the story of Benny (The Bug) Ross, an organizer he said Dio hired for Local 102 of UAW-AFL.

Benny, said Zakman, "was unethical but it worked." What's more, he said, Benny "didn't believe in elections" to decide who should be the collective bargaining agent for any plant.

Benny's approach was much (Turn to Page Fifteen)

State Aid Possible For Hospitals In Mental Health Field

By LEONARD A. UNGER

Harrisburg (P) — The State Justice Department was reported today ready to rule that general hospitals may claim state aid for treatment of indigent mental patients.

The ruling is expected to open the door for expenditure of a substantial part of 24 million dollars in state subsidies to hospitals in the mental health field.

Welfare Secretary Harry Shapiro said he expected such an opinion "in the next few days" and lauded its probable impact.

The opinion, written by Deputy Atty. Gen. Stephen Narin, is expected to say that the treatment of mental patients is "a medical service and it clearly comes within the terms of 'medical-surgical services.'"

The 1957 Legislature appropriated 24 million dollars in state aid to some 180 medical and surgical hospitals to be allocated on the basis of $9 a day for the care of each indigent patient.

Shapiro asked the Justice Department to rule on whether hospitals could be reimbursed by the state for mental patients.

One class would be patients who became acutely ill with a mental disease the other would be mental patients who had to receive medical or surgical care not available at mental institutions.

Narin, as required by law, asked Atty. Gen. Charles C. Smith for his viewpoint on the question since it involved an appropriation bill. Smith wrote Narin that he disagreed with the proposed opinion. He said the treatment of mental patients "in the great majority of situations" did not involve medicine, drugs and serum.

Purchasing Director In Department of Supplies Is Fired

Harrisburg (P) — William C. Austin, deputy secretary of property and supplies, said today the commonwealth's chief purchasing agent was fired because "we think possibly that someone else will do the job better."

Austin said he asked for the resignation of Kenneth W. Haldeman, Columbia, from the post of director of purchases at a salary of $10,432 a year in the state's purchasing department.

At the same time, Alfred T. Novella, deputy auditor general, said a report would be completed next week on the bureau's operation. He said the report would show that Haldeman "apparently exceeded his authority" on some state purchases.

Haldeman declined to comment on the situation.

The victim was identified as Pvt. Thomas Holloway, 18, of Washington, a member of the Headquarters Company of the 171st Military Police Battalion from the District of Columbia.

Indianapolis Gap authorities said the young guardsman was struck on the head by a flare used in connection with night maneuvers. He was rushed to the Veterans Hospital at Lebanon, Pa., where he died early today.

A spokesman said that Holloway was struck by exploding trip flare.

Facilities besides the slide (with A. Bevevino at the foot), include teeters and swings, while a sandbox is under construction at Photographer Brown's feet. Onside Lumber and Supply Company at 405 Beech Street donated the land for use by the children. It is in the block above St. Joseph's Church on Beech.

Man Drives Brakeless Truck 85 MPH Down Hill Without Accident Says "He's Lucky"

Uniontown (P) — A truck driver who skillfully drove his brakeless vehicle at 85 miles an hour down a curving mountain road without denting a fender said today he's mighty lucky to be alive.

State Trooper Reu Silbaugh, a man with nerves to match those of Glenn Switzer of Fairmont, Neb., agreed with Switzer. So did nearly a score of motorists who scattered out of the path of the truck, carrying 40,000 pounds of sugar from Baltimore to Chicago.

Switzer, 23, had just started to descend the three-mile Summit Mountain hill on Route 40 last night when his clutch failed. Then his brakes failed. By this time, he said, he was "really rolling."

Just then, Trooper Silbaugh came along on routine patrol—in the opposite lane of traffic. He quickly swung his car around, sped past Switzer's rolling truck and kept his siren roaring. Motorists scattered.

"I was thinking about jumping a couple of times but then I looked at the speedometer," Switzer related. "The last time I looked I was rocking along about 85 miles an hour and I just said to myself:

"Man, you're crazy if you jump." So I decided to ride her out."

Trooper Silbaugh breezed into the little community of Hopwood at the bottom of the hill and had everyone out of the way when the tractor-trailer roared into town.

"I had brushed my truck against the hillside a couple of times and slowed her down to about 70 miles an hour," Switzer said. "When I got into Hopwood there was a little grade and that slowed me up. Then I saw a muddy path alongside of the road and I just pulled over and stopped."

Switzer, father of five children, collapsed and was treated for shock.

President Lauds Military Aviation Golden Anniversary

Washington (P) — President Eisenhower, air leaders and a grateful nation saluted the Air Force on its 50th birthday today.

Eisenhower paid his tribute in a message of congratulations to the Air Force Association, which is sponsoring a nationwide observance of the golden anniversary of military aviation service.

Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff, spoke and prayed at simple memorial services at Arlington National Cemetery as a formation of 11 supersonic F100 interceptors swept low overhead. There was a gap in their formation for a twelfth plane in memory of missing buddies.

Gen. White's remarks were punctuated by the staccato echo of firing squads at a series of services under way in the vast burial grounds.

At the National Guard Armory, Postmaster General Summerfield presented to Air Force Secretary James H. Douglas a specially designed six-cent air mail stamp which he said would remind people the world over for the next six months of "the vital contributions being made to our national advancement and security by the U. S. Air Force."

Summerfield said the stamp, showing a B52 jet bomber with three F104 jet interceptors in the background, would go on sale in the nation's 37,000 post offices tomorrow with an initial printing of 40 million.

He added that he would deliver the first album of the commemorative stamps to the President, "personally at the White House."

Ike Lauds Air Force on Fiftieth Anniversary

Washington (P) — The Air Force celebrated its 50th birthday today, and President Eisenhower joined the cheers and applause.

"In the 50th anniversary year, the United States Air Force is a key element in the nation's power for peace," Eisenhower said.

"With vigor, imagination and a keen sense of duty, the Air Force has achieved a splendid tradition of service in defense of the free world."

Eisenhower expressed himself in a message of greeting to Reserve Brig. Gen. John P. Henebery of Chicago, president of the Air Force Assn.

CLOSE BATTLE TIGHTENED BY NEW REVISION

By JACK BELL

Washington (P) — Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said today he was confident a jury trial amendment to the civil rights bill would be defeated despite its revision in an apparent effort to sway wavering senators.

But supporters for a jury trial provision evidently hoped that the revised amendment would tip the scales their way in the nip-and-tuck fight over the issue.

A new section added to the pending amendment last night would permit Negroes or others to serve as federal court jurors regardless of whether or not they were qualified under state laws.

Knowland said that while this change in federal law might be desirable in itself, it did not lessen his opposition to writing a jury trial into the civil rights measure.

And he told a reporter he did not believe the proposal had cost opponents of the amendment any votes. He said he still was confident of victory and was ready to vote at any time.

But there were indications that proponents of the jury trial amendment—including Southern senators who are opposing any civil rights legislation—also are looking forward more confidently to a showdown.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas said in recessing a 10-hour Senate session last night he believed it would be possible to get a vote on the amendment this week.

Earlier in the day, Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), the Southerners' quarterback, had blocked by three separate objections as many efforts by Knowland to get unanimous consent for a vote on the amendment this week.

Sponsors of the new section to the amendment included Senators Pastore (D-R.I.) and Kennedy (D-Mass.), both of whose positions on the jury question had been regarded as uncertain.

However, Pastore said he was not committed to voting for the amendment. Kennedy was not available.

President Eisenhower called again yesterday for Senate approval without change of proposed authority for the attorney general to seek federal court civil injunctions to protect the right of Negroes to vote. No jury trials would be authorized in cases involving injunction violations.

Russell told the Senate yesterday that Southern opponents of the civil rights bill—who are supporting the jury trial amendment—have no intention of filibustering.

British Speed King Fails In Try To Break Record

Canandaigua, N. Y. (P) — Donald Campbell failed today in his first attempt on Canandaigua Lake to break his world water-speed record.

The British speed king rocketed his hydroplane, Bluebird II, to 158.6 and 187.5 miles an hour in two runs, but a slight swell on the lake made the jet-powered boat buck violently.

Campbell's record is 225.63 mph, set at Lake Coniston, England, last year.

"I took a terrific beating out there," he said after today's run.

Vacancies Filled on Benzinger Twp. Board

St. Marys (P) — Judge J. L. Trumbley of Elk County today appointed five men to the Benzinger Twp. School Board to replace five who resigned last July 1 in a hassle over transporting parochial school pupils in public school buses.

The five former board members announced last April 1 that parochial school pupils would no longer be transported in the township's school buses. The board said it was acting on orders from the State Education Dept.

Parents of parochial school pupils held a series of meetings to protest the action and finally decided to haul their children to school in car pools.

Montana State Pen Is Reported Calm Under Armed Truce

Deer Lodge, Mont. (P) — The task of cleaning up continued today inside riot-torn Montana State Prison.

A sort of armed truce prevailed as prison inmates agreed to sit tight until prison commissioners have had a chance to study the demands made during their nine-hour uprising Tuesday.

The riot began Tuesday afternoon when a group of convicts apparently became angered over a guard's order to shell peas. They held eight guards as hostage, releasing them only after Anderson assured them that their demands would be given consideration by the prison board.

Meanwhile, in Helena Gov. J. Hugo Aronson, ex-officio chairman of the prison board, announced that a board meeting scheduled today was postponed until early next week to give Warden F. O. Burrell a chance to appraise the situation and "get his feet on the ground."

Snake Wiggle At Banquet of Reptile Eaters Causes Stir

Warriors Mark, Pa. (P)—Rattlesnake eaters got together Monday night for their annual banquet and initiation in these central Pennsylvania hills.

The Ancient Gastronomic Order of Rattlesnake Eaters held their banquet last night at Fairbrook Manor, a rambling 80-room stone house built in 1834 near Pennsylvania Furnace.

Dr. Fred Bolman, president of Franklin and Marshall College, and Dr. H. Thompson Dale, of State College, Pa., were initiated last night to bring the membership to 52.

What does it take to join this exclusive organization?

You must sit down to a morsel of rattlesnake meat and consume it while watching two live ones wiggle in front of you.

The Rattlesnake Eaters get their makes in Cameron County and bring them back for the feast each year. The members ate a total of 40 at the banquet last night. Two live ones were allowed to wiggle emptily in a glass case on the table.

Scientist Says Radioisotopes Will Soon Offset Expenses of Nuclear Weapons Program

Hazleton (P)—An atomic energy commissioner has predicted that savings from peaceful uses of radioisotopes will soon offset the cost of the nation's nuclear weapons program.

Dr. Willard F. Libby said "within three to five years—probably more nearly three, sometimes in 1960—radioisotopes probably will be paying the whole way for the atom."

That means, he added, "the American people and the Western world will get their atomic armament and their atomic power development costs all free—in the sense that the benefits of five billion dollars annual savings in industrial processing and agricultural costs are pretty well distributed among the taxpayers."

Libby's comments were contained in a speech prepared for the dedication of a new plant of the Beryllium Corp.

"Already, with our present 500 million dollars' annual savings for a direct outlay of about three million annually, isotopes are giving a fair return on the total investment."

ment in the whole atomic energy project," he said.

The nuclear weapons stockpile and atom power developments, Libby continued, "are beginning to be born by the largely unsmiling but very benevolent isotopes."

Isotopes are different forms of the same element, and they have different characteristics. Some radioisotopes are byproducts of atomic reactors.

As an example of the 500 million yearly savings already achieved in agriculture and industry, Libby cited the use of radioisotopes in measuring gauges in measuring, recording and controlling the thickness of various materials such as aluminum, rubber and cigarettes. He reported that U. S. manufacturers estimated they are saving 120 million dollars annually on costs through their use and that the savings probably will rise to a billion a year in two or three years.

Libby listed several isotopes which he said would drop sharply in price with widespread use.

Radioactive carbon, for example, now sells for $22,000 per curie, Libby said. He said a price of $110 per curie might become possible with volume production. The curie is a measure of radiation.

Libby predicted vast new uses for radioisotopes in the years ahead.

"The known applications of radioisotopes techniques have by no means saturated the market," he said.

"In the field of the atom-for-peace program, isotopes will play a very great role, for they can be put to work immediately without extensive training and heavy investment, and can serve for years to convince people the world over of the atom's great promise for peaceful uses."

"Already, with our present 500 million dollars' annual savings for a direct outlay of about three million annually, isotopes are giving a fair return on the total investment."

The girl, Marolyn Fisli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fish of 1090 E. Main St., failed to return home after what was believed to be a routine trip to the grocery store. It was feared that the girl might have encountered some foul play, since she had left with no extra clothing and had left the house to buy some insect repellent. Police in Titusville and Meadville had been alerted to look for the 5 ft. 3 in. brunette, who was clad in a red blouse, green bermuda shorts and white shoes.

No details were available last night on how the girl got to Wheeling from the Corry grocery store.

TRIBUTE TO HEROES—This 700-piece, stained-glass window was unveiled at Coastal Command Headquarters, Royal Air Force, at Northwood, England, during a ceremony marking the 51st anniversary of the Coastal Command and commemorating its achievements in World War II. The Coastal Command played a vital role in the battle of the Atlantic. At left, Air Vice Marshal C. E. Chilton, Senior Air Staff Officer, who conceived and planned the window, chats with Norman R. Atwood, former airman in the R.A.F., who did the detailed design work. Dominating feature of the window is a central figure in R.A.F. flying clothes, holding an Aldis lamp.

SANFORD

Sanford—S. M. Parker recently celebrated his 87th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Perry Parker and son, Perry, and daughter, Mrs. Nancy Way, and her two children, with Rodney Pearson, all of Corry, came to help him celebrate and brought a beautiful cake for the occasion. Sunday callers at the Parker home were Mr. and Mrs. Forest Childs, Titusville. Their daughter, Mrs. Frank Bristol and two children, Ocean Side, L. I., came Sunday to spend their vacation.

The Rev. and Mrs. Harold West have returned from Clarksburg, W. Va., where he spent last week with his mother, under a doctor's care for some time.

Karen Ongley, Titusville, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Van Guilder.

Lorraine Scott recently visited Josie Platz at Pittsfield.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ho Scott and family attended the Sanford reunion in Mead Park at Corry. In the evening, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sanford at West Spring Creek. He has been in ill health for some time and is happy to have friends call.

Mrs. Lily Garber, in Warren Monday, was accompanied by her niece, Karen Ruhman, who has been here for a week's visit. On Friday night, they visited Mr. and Mrs. John M. Morris at Lake City and called on Johnnie Morris at Boy Scout Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beers have moved into the tenant house of the Quaker State Oil Co., and he is operating the Dean Plant.

STARBRICK MEETING
Starbrick Volunteer Fire Department will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 for the regular business meeting. Refreshments will be served after the meeting and a large attendance is urged.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL
Friends and relatives will be pleased to learn that John K. Stevenson, 9 Church street, North Warren, has arrived home and is convalescing satisfactorily following heart surgery performed recently in Allegheny General Hospital in Pittsburgh.

AT CPA CONFERENCE
Gerald L. Coates, 107 Canton street, is the only local resident listed for attendance at the Accounting Study Conference being sponsored by the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants at Pennsylvania State University August 4-7.

NORMAL JULY RAIN
Rain during the past July was just about normal, or perhaps a trifle below, as weather observer Gil Reier reported total precipitation of 3.13 inches during the 31-day period. July 1956 was noted for the first of Warren's three famed flash floods, and 7.31 inches of rain fell during that central month of one of Warren's rainiest summers.

PRECAUTIONARY RUNS
Borough fire department trucks made two precautionary runs Wednesday afternoon. About 3:30 they roared to GLE on the East Side where a sprinkler had automatically tripped. About 5 p. m. they were called to the corner of East Street and Fifth Avenue where street flares had upset. There was no damage.

WANDERLUST ENDS
An unannounced summer outing of 14-year-old Edward English, Kinzua, came to a halt yesterday when state troopers from Tionesta barracks called him ashore from his 12-foot rowboat which had not been home since he shoved off from his residence Monday morning. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard English, had alerted troopers when the boy failed to return. Officers sighted him floating opposite Pioneer Lodge at Warren-Forest County line. A search party headed by James Pompilio of Kinzua failed to locate the lad yesterday between Kinzua and Warren.

"Tonight" Show Is Rejuvenated With Jack Parr's Touch

By CHARLES MERCER
New York—(AP)—I believe Jack Parr can rescue NBC-TV's "Tonight" show from the doldrums in which it has been floating since Steve Allen left for the Sunday night wars.

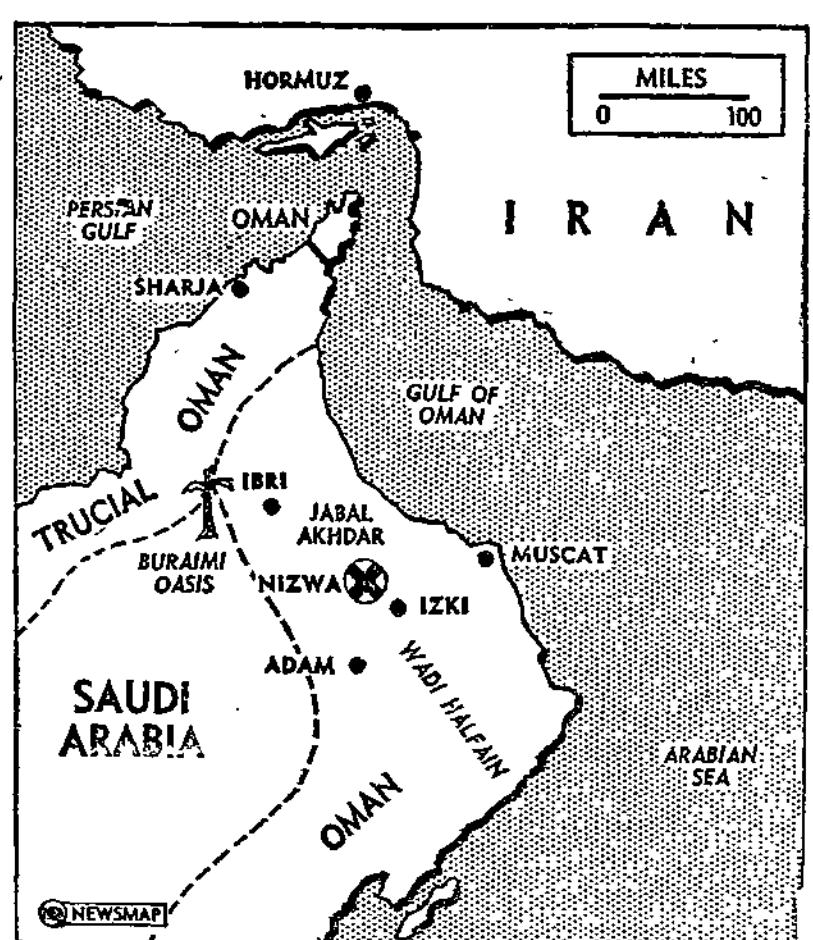

On his opening night Parr came out slowly, but he always has come out slowly in his opening rounds. He's returning in general to the old Allen format, but he's making it very clear he's not imitating Allen. He's simply being Parr.

Being Parr is being an individualist. He says that you won't hear any jazz and jive talk from him on "Tonight," even though there's a theory that jazz lovers are always still up at midnight. Parr could easily acquire a little superficial jazz talk, but he won't because it doesn't interest him.

Being Parr, he lives with his wife and daughter and swimming pool and a lot of books up in Westchester County and always enters the city reluctantly and leaves it as quickly as he can.

The new "Tonight" show is further adorned by the music of Jose Melis, the Cuban pianist, and—at least for this week—by singer Helen O'Connell. Another pleasant innovation is the sexy weather girl, Todi Thurman.

There's a relaxing quality to the program, though some people believe that the problem with "Tonight" in the past year has not been the nature of the program itself, but the old movies against which it competes.

OMEN FOR GOOD OR ILL?—Newsmap locates the sun-seared, oil-rich territory of Oman, where activities of insurgents seeking to oust the Sultan of Muscat and Oman has caused Britain to back up British-offered Trucial scouts with ground troops and air support. In their initial drive, insurgents captured the one-time capital of Oman, Nizwa. Ownership of Buraimi Oasis has long been disputed by the British-supported Sultan and Arabia's King Saud. British newspapers have voiced speculation that the situation might be one of the matters Secretary of State John Foster Dulles may take up with British leaders during his attendance at the London disarmament talks now going on.

AKELEY
Akeley—The Ladies' Auxiliary of Hale Cemetery Association held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Larson, with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. Carl Nelson, was in charge; the chaplain, Mrs. Victor Granquist, gave devotions, and all repeated the Lord's Prayer. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Flora Wiltzie at 2:00 p. m. August 30.

Jeanette Lundmark and Al Jones, Philadelphia, visited relatives here over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton are spending this week fishing in Canada.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. John Cable have been Mr. and Mrs. George Sly, Bradenton, Fla. On Friday, all were guests for a luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gern, Pleasant township, and on Sunday were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Cable in Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lundmark and Julia Nelson were Saturday guests of Mrs. Ina Lindstrom and son, Harry, at Limestone, N. Y. The Lundmarks, with Anton Lindquist and Ray McIntosh, attended the mail carriers' convention at Erie Tuesday and Wednesday.

Friends of Lester Hale will be glad to learn he is home and improving nicely following surgery at Memorial Hospital in Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Haller and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Haller and family at Stillwater.

Mrs. M. A. (Vera) Phillips, wife of Maj. Malcolm A. Phillips and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. "Mrs. M. A. Phillips, wife of Maj. M. A. Phillips, entered the American Red Cross Volunteer Nursing Service group in Tokyo Feb. 1956. Mrs. Phillips has held several offices during this short period. She has been Homemaker, Vice-Chairman of Nursing Service, and at the present is Chairman of Nursing Service. Mrs. Phillips has done considerable work with Far East Registered Nurses which is in conjunction with Red Cross Nursing Service.

"In serving as FERN's Secretary-Treasurer in Feb. 1956, Reservation Chairman in 1956, editing the majority of FERN's newsletters, providing innumerable programs for FERN chairmen in the Tokyo area, Mrs. Phillips' accrual of hundreds of hours has doubly enabled her to be of great service to this military community.

WHOLESALE FOOD UP
An Associated Press dispatch from New York says wholesale food costs as measured by Dun & Bradstreet touched a 25-month high this week. At $6.37, the index was the highest since the $6.42 reported by Dunn & Bradstreet on June 23, 1955. It was up 4.8 per cent from a year ago, and a shade higher than last week's $6.35.

PICNIC FOR CARRIERS
A big time is in store for Times-Mirror carriers Saturday when they will be entertained at the annual picnic to be held at Midway Park on Chautauqua Lake, as guests of Mrs. Nell G. Walker, publisher, and Howard Clark, circulation manager. Two chartered buses will leave Times Square about ten o'clock Saturday morning. Boys are reminded to be at the Times-Mirror office by 9:30 o'clock with bathing suits. Free tickets for rides, eats, etc., will be distributed.

EGG INSPECTORS
A Harrisburg dispatch says the first civil service examination for poultry and egg inspectors in the State Department of Agriculture will be given Sept. 7, the department announced today. Salaries ranged from $3,560 to $8,163 annually. Poultry and egg inspectors have not previously been given civil service protection. Secretary of Agriculture William L. Hennig said their inclusion would "guarantee the retention of outstanding men now with the department." A Aug. 16 deadline date for applications was set by the State Civil Service commission.

Worst hit were the cities of Isahaya and Omura, 10 miles from atom-bomb-battered Nagasaki. Japanese press reports put the death toll as high as 3,000. Millions of Americans Wish Someone Would Learn Knack Of Stopping Shrinking Dollar

By SAM DAWSON
New York (AP)—The textile industry has learned how to stop shrinkage of clothing. Millions of Americans wish someone could learn the knack of stopping the shrinkage of the dollar.
It has lost five cents of its purchasing power in the last 16 months. Compared with 1940 it is worth only about half as much at the store or in buying the many services which play an increasing part in today's way of living.
One solution for the problem of the personal budget that has been tried increasingly in recent years has been to tie wage scales to the rising cost of living. About four million workers are affected now.
Of late this has seemed to be more of a see-saw than a solution. For a time this spring the worker was on the low end of the plank. The cost of living was rising faster than his take-home pay.
In June the factory worker got the first break in months, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reports. The weekly pay after taxes for the average factory worker rose 65 cents to $75.13. This was just a shade more than the cost of living rose in June.
Consumer prices took one of their biggest jumps in months. The bureau says they have climbed again this month. Biggest culprit was the price of food. And drought in the northeast and floods in other sections imperil the hoped-for downtrend in food prices next month.
Services charges have been rising almost steadily for several years. Now price increases are predicted for a number of consumer items as a result of the hike in steel prices this month and the expected boost in aluminum prices next month.
The consumer price index now stands at 120.2. This means that the dollar's purchasing power has shrunk about 20 per cent since the 1947-48 base period.
The family budget is the first to suffer. Hardest hit are those whose pay scales aren't tied to the price index and, particularly, those who are trying to get along on fixed incomes, such as pensions.
But the shrinkage of the dollar hits industry, too. The cost of replacing a steel mill, for example, has soared since the war.
Because of the shrinking dollar it costs more to rebuild inventories. Because the dollar buys fewer materials and less labor the profit margins of many businesses are shriveling, too.
And since June's cost of living jump means pay hikes for 650,000 workers, the squeeze on profit margins will be that much tighter for the companies who hire them.
One of the reasons the federal government spent more money in the fiscal year recently ended than it had expected to is that the cost of the things it buys and the pay of the workers it hires had gone up since the budget was drawn.

Matter of Fact

For the President's apparent reluctance to fight hard for his Civil Rights bill has fitted perfectly into the brilliant strategy of Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson. It was clear to Johnson from the start that the Republican administration's decision to press for serious civil rights legislation represented a desperate danger to his party. It threatened to split the party irremediably. And it threatened the very political existence of northern Democrats heavily dependent on the Negro vote.
In the face of this danger, Johnson did what he always does—he sought the common denominator of mutual interest, between the various factions of his party. He found it in weak (or, if you prefer, "moderate") civil rights legislation.
The southerners want a weak bill for obvious reasons. But the northern Democrats also want desperately to be able to charge that the Eisenhower administration has "sold the minorities down the river," as a result of the President's failure to fight hard for his bill. In fact, when the President equivocated on section three, northern Democrats like Neuberger, of Oregon and Douglas, of Illinois, instantly and happily seized on this battle cry.
As a result, the danger to the Democrats inherent in Republican advocacy of civil rights legislation is already far less than it was. If the jury trial amendment passes, while the President stands aloof, the immense political advantage which ought to have been gained by the Republicans, as a result of passing the first civil rights legislation since reconstruction days, will largely evaporate. But if the President intervenes openly and strongly, making the jury trial fight a party line issue, the Republicans will score a decisive political gain, even if the fight is lost.
Such, at least, is the reasoning of those who favor firm and immediate personal intervention by the President in the civil rights struggle. It is hard to see a flaw in their reasoning. But the odds are probably against the President injecting himself forcefully into the fight all the same. For he is a man with an instinct for remaining above the battle, and a tendency, unfortunately in a politician, to see both sides of every question.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

By EDDY GILMORE
London (AP)—Britain's royal family is one of the greatest sales teams in the world.
Its garden party this week for 5,000 Americans—3,000 members of the American Bar Association and their relatives—was a demonstration of compelling advertising for Britain.
Two hours' exposure to Queen Elizabeth II, the Queen Mother, Prince Philip, the princess royal and the Duchess of Kent made some of the Americans ecstatic.
Cecil M. Bruney, of Corpus Christi, Tex., called the Queen "a honey."
Said Charles N. Rhyne, District of Columbia, new president of the Bar Association: "She's just like a Dresden doll. The Queen Mother is the most regal person I've ever seen in my life."
"And the prince," broke in Mrs. Rhyne. "He's just so handsome."
Said Mrs. Herbert Brownell, wife of the U. S. attorney general: "She's the Queen magnificent. She's heavenly. And he—he's so handsome."

John Ranek, of Lancaster, Pa., smiled broadly.

"She's a real doll," he said, "and the prince is a charmer."

Mrs. Nora Snyder, of Kansas City, took a deep breath.

"I was just thrilled, absolutely thrilled to meet the prince."

The Americans who spilled out over the Buckingham Palace lawn made no secret of the fact that they came to see, meet and if possible, talk to members of the royal family.

Mrs. Benjamin Roth, of Youngstown, Ohio, told the Queen:

"We have a daughter who is just like you. People are always saying she could be your twin sister."

"A wonderful, wonderful family," nodded Judge Thornton G. Berry, of Welch, W. Va.

Palace officials selected in advance a number of Americans to be presented to the royal family. Others just introduced themselves. Wave after wave of admiring Americans ignored the palace officials, broke ranks, surrounded the Queen, the prince and the Queen Mother.

There was only one disappointing feature—the absence of Princess Margaret.

A friend said she stayed away for fear the Americans, in their frank friendliness, might have asked Margaret too many questions.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN BETLEY

Miss Martha Ann Milenius, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Milenius of 6 Cottage Place, became the bride of John Betley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Betley of Ambridge, Pa., at 3:30 p. m. Saturday, July 27, in First Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Donald H. Spencer performed the double ring ceremony, with Carroll Fowler, organist, playing a half-hour recital as guests assembled.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride had as maid of honor Miss Nell Mamrosh, of Ambridge.

Carrying a colonial bouquet of white stock and baby's breath, centered with an orchid, the bride chose a gown of white nylon velvety over yellow taffeta. The fitted bodice was fashioned with scoop neckline, cap sleeves, and taffeta cummerbund forming graceful panels down the back of the bouffant ballerina skirt. Her circular veil of illusion was caught to a yellow petal shell.

Miss Mamrosh wore delphinium blue taffeta, princess style, and matching headband. Her flowers were yellow Sweetheart roses and blue delphinium.

Peter Betley served his brother as best man; ushers were the bride's brother, David Milenius, and Gerald Pawelchak, Warren, Ohio.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Betley, Peter Betley, Mrs. Anthony Mamrosh, Nell Mamrosh, Samuel Mamrosh, Ambridge; Mr. and Mrs. William Pawelchak, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Pawelchak, Warren, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stohl, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee and sons, Tommy and Donny, Buffalo, N. Y.

Following a southern wedding trip, the couple will live at 44 Green street, Lansdale, Pa. The bride is a 1954 graduate of Warren High School and has been employed in the office of Ray Industries, Inc. Mr. Betley was graduated as a chemical engineer from Pennsylvania State University in 1950 and is a research engineer with Philco Corp.

Honoring the bride-elect with pre-nuptial parties have been Mrs. Creed Erickson, Mrs. Donald Smith, Mrs. Harland Rue, Mrs. Duane Green, and Mrs. J. Russell Elliott.

SLACK FAMILY

The 15th annual reunion of the Slack family was held July 28 in the community house at Cherry Grove, with an attendance of 120 persons from Jacksonville, Fla.; Alexandria, Va.; Cleveland, O.; Jamestown and Olean, N. Y.; Butler, Gifford, Warren, Ludlow, Clarendon, Montgomery, and Sheffield.

Following a bountiful picnic dinner at one o'clock, the president, Mrs. Edith Slack of Jamestown, conducted the business session. Next year's gathering will be held at the same place, with the same officers in charge.

All enjoyed an informal program of bingo, games and races and, at 6:00 p. m., pop and ice cream were served to all. The ice cream was the gift of Mert Deyo and Charles Slack.

Myrna Loy Wages War on Illiteracy.

BY ALICIA HAET
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Myrna Loy won success as a movie star mostly in roles as a sophisticated, intelligent, beautiful female.

Today she is enjoying a new career in a new field with a real-life portrayal of that same type woman.

Her new success has just been capped with a special appointment to the Technical Advisory Committee of the National Commission on Literacy.

She was made a member of the recently created commission in the first place because of her work on adult education with the United Nations Scientific and Cultural Organization. This type of public service is her new career.

THE TECHNICAL advisory group was appointed at the recent meeting of the literacy commission to achieve some quick action toward reducing illiteracy in the United States. Miss Loy—married to Howland W. Sargeant, a former high State Department official and now with a Carnegie fund group in New York—explains the goal of the commission:

"We want to carry out emergency plans for a vigorous attack on the serious problem of adult illiteracy in America. We think our first job is to create a national awareness of the magnitude, seriousness and urgency of the problem of illiteracy."

Myrna Loy is still a glamorous gal who gets long, admiring stares wherever she appears in public. But that's where the Hollywood side of her life ends. Today she is completely wrapped up in her work in behalf of such causes as reducing illiteracy. And the authoritative way she discusses facts and figures on these problems reveals how deeply immersed she is in this work.

FOR EXAMPLE she reports: "The last census showed nearly 10 million adults in America are functionally illiterate. That means they have not advanced in reading and writing ability beyond the fourth grade. And there has been very little change since that time."

"The facts also show that illiteracy is not a sectional or racial problem; it is national. Every state in the Union and every section of the population is affected. In 1950 there were over four million native white adults who were illiterate and there were three million foreign-born whites and three million Negroes."

Miss Loy first got interested in public service in Washington following her marriage to Sargeant. They now live in New York but she is here much of the time in connection with her work.

Comparing her present activities to her days as a film star, Miss Loy says, "What I'm doing today is far more satisfying."

American Bread Among World's Best

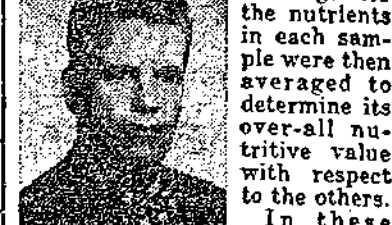

ST. LOUIS, MO.—Enriched white bread from the United States placed in the highest group of the world's breads recently analyzed for their nutritive value. This was the report which Dr. Robert S. Harris, head of the department of Food Technology of Massachusetts Institute of Technology gave to women of the press recently in St. Louis at a dinner given at the Missouri Athletic Club by the Consumer Service Department of the American Institute of Baking, Chicago. The meeting was held in connection with the annual convention of the American Home Economics Association.

Breads, like people have their national characteristics. They also have their special nutritive values. It was "The Nutritional Value of Modern Breads throughout the World" that Dr. Harris talked. He told the sixty-some food writers, editors, broadcasters, and telecasters of his audience that 37 samples of bread were collected in 13 countries. They represented the popular breads of these countries. They came from Australia, Austria, Cuba, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Italy, Norway, Philippines, Sweden, Switzerland and the United States.

Each sample was submitted to 17 analyses in order to determine the nutrient content, as follows: water, fat, protein, carbohydrate, ash, calcium, phosphorus, iron, thiamine, riboflavin, niacin, pantothenate, folic acid, vitamin B₆, vitamin B₁₂, lysine, methionine and tryptophan.

These 37 samples were then ranked according to relative richness of each with respect to each nutrient. The rankings for rankings for the nutrients in each sample were then averaged to determine its over-all nutritive value with respect to the others. In these analyses, the enriched white bread of the United States ranked second. It was the Finnish semi-white bread (made with a low extraction flour, whole wheat, and milk solids) that was first. A semi-white bread from Switzerland ranked third.

Dr. Harris stated, "the enriched white bread with 3.4% milk solids is excellent nutritionally, and compares favorably with the world's breads."

According to type of bread, enriched white bread ranked first, rye bread second, semi-white third, rye-wheat bread fourth and unenriched bread last.

As a feature of the dinner, breads of thirteen countries of the world were baked for the occasion, and each bearing its national flag, made up the centerpiece of the speakers table.

Mr. and Mrs. Naldo S. Garber, Clarendon, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Ann, to Vernon Lloyd Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Baker of Vandergriff, Pa., and presently stationed at the Naval Air Base in Pensacola, Fla. No date has been set for the wedding.

DARK glasses are an absolute must for summertime wear. Yet, the next time you go to the beach, note the number of girls who have not given their eyes this essential protection from the sun.

Like suntan lotion, dark glasses belong in your beach bag. Buy them as you would any other accessory and make a habit of wearing them whenever you're out in the sun. And use a soothing eye lotion when you get home at night.

A girl can indulge herself in buying sunglasses in a way that she cannot when she chooses regular glasses. If she likes rhinestones, vivid or pastel colors, flower trim or a combination of two or three colors, she may have them and still be within the limits of good taste.

She can choose her sunglasses for drama, for fun or for flattery, but whichever, she should wear them whenever she steps into the sun, all summer long.

Alberto Bolet, conductor of the Havana, Cuba, Philharmonic Orchestra, will take over the baton from Walter Hendl to appear as guest conductor of Chautauqua Symphony at 3:00 p. m. Sunday and again at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Other activities in the musical and dramatic fields scheduled during the Institution's sixth week, August 4-10, include a joint recital by Rose Savoia, soprano, and Clifford Harvuot, baritone, on Monday evening in the amphitheatre; and a "Boston Pops" style concert on Wednesday evening by the Symphony.

Edward Murphy will conduct the Student Symphony in an amphitheatre concert at 11:00 a. m. Saturday and Mr. Hendl will present the Symphony at 8:30 the same evening, with Violinist Nathan Gordon as soloist.

Operas will be Puccini's "La Boheme" on Monday evening and Donizetti's "Lucia di Lammermoor" on Friday night.

"Witness for the Prosecution" by Agatha Christie will be performed on Thursday and Saturday evenings, both these and the operas to be in Norton Memorial Hall.

Speakers and lecturers will cover a wide variety of fields, education, industry, excavating in Greece, superstitions, and politics. A two-day Flower Show will be held in McKnight Recital Hall on Thursday and Friday; and CLSC Recognition Week will be observed.

Plans Are Complete For Class '47 Reunion

Reporting today on plans for the Warren High School Class of 1947 reunion, committee members state all is in readiness for the event, scheduled on Saturday of this week at the Marconi Outing Club.

Dinner will be served at 8:15, followed by a program of an informal and impromptu nature, and there will be dancing from nine until one to the music of George Johnson and His Orchestra.

Out of town members who have made advance reservations for the gathering will be coming from Cincinnati, O.; Buffalo, Syracuse and Rochester, N. Y.; and Pittsburgh.

Members of other graduating classes are cordially invited to join the reuniting members for dancing, admission set at $3 per couple.

Sunglasses Give Gals Flirty Eye Protection

BY ALICIA HART

DARK glasses are an absolute must for summertime wear. Yet, the next time you go to the beach, note the number of girls who have not given their eyes this essential protection from the sun.

Like suntan lotion, dark glasses belong in your beach bag. Buy them as you would any other accessory and make a habit of wearing them whenever you're out in the sun. And use a soothing eye lotion when you get home at night.

She can choose her sunglasses for drama, for fun or for flattery, but whichever, she should wear them whenever she steps into the sun, all summer long.

The beauty on the beach who takes care of her eyes demonstrates that she's smart as well as pretty. Dark glasses are a must under a glaring sun and this girl picks a pair with small, striped "aviators" that extends over the lenses.

Dog Days Time to Plan for Autumn

WHOEVER invented the month of August undoubtedly thought up the month of February, too. But August does possess some admittedly good points. For one thing, it allows a gal to get summer out of her system in a leisurely sort of way and to prepare for autumn. It's a bridge from summer to fall. What you do while you're crossing that bridge is important to the way you'll look in the first golden days of autumn. What about your hair? Frizzy from the sun and salt water? Dried out or stringy? Then it needs treatment at the hands of an expert. And your skin? Getting that tan was fun. It will look wonderful with the first black crepe dresses you wear. But your skin also needs careful creaming and attention to rid it of dryness. Then there's the matter of your wardrobe. Are you sure that all of those dresses you count on for autumn are really wearable? Now's the time to find out. Perhaps, after all, August is a necessary month.

BY ALICIA HART

ONCE you start a diet, you should know that there are several plateaus that are likely to give you a bad time. The first comes during the first week. It's then that you feel the diet most. You're changing an important habit and it makes you irritable. So be prepared for this first week and recognize it for what it is. This feeling of discomfort vanishes as your stomach adjusts itself to a smaller amount of food. Then comes the next period, usually after you've dieted several weeks and have been losing weight to your satisfaction. You reach a stretch where you seem not to be losing weight even though you stick to your diet. You are losing weight, the scales won't register the loss, that's all. So stick to your diet no matter. You'll win through to the reward of a slimmer, younger figure.

WHEN you go shopping for a new suit or dress, don't take along your best friend. You're a big girl now and you can rely on your own judgment. What then your friend likes on you may not be right for you at all. In any case, it's best to develop your own clothes sense, a knowledge of what's right for your particular good looks. And be careful about leaning too heavily on the judgment of the saleslady. The fact that she "has a dress just like it" is not necessarily a recommendation. Evolve your own good taste through trial and error. That's the way that all sound judgment is achieved.

Study Older Women to Insure Happy Old Age

EVERY middle-aged woman ought to study older women so she can begin the self-discipline necessary to make her the kind of woman who meets old age with courage and good cheer.

If she looks and listens and tries to figure out why this older woman is happy and why that one is cheerless, she will learn more than she could in any other way about the art of living. A few facts are sure to become clear to her as she studies older women.

One is that the happy older women "do" for themselves as long as they are able. They have an independence of spirit that keeps them doers instead of leavers.

Another fact she will discover is that the happy older woman doesn't stubbornly resist change and talk about the good old days but accepts the world as it is and young people as they are. She will also notice that the happy older woman overlooks disappointment instead of looking for it. She doesn't dwell on unpleasantness or expect too much of family or friends. She has a live-and-let-live philosophy that extends even to those who are near and dear to her. And always the really happy older woman has a deep religious faith.

STUDY UNHAPPY, TOO

FROM the unhappy older woman she can learn a lot, too. She can learn what she must not do if she wants younger people to enjoy her company, if she wants to keep her friends and if she wants her life to be as rewarding as it was in her younger years.

Any middle-aged woman who will take the trouble to study both the happy and the unhappy older women she knows will be doing a great deal toward becoming a happy person in her own old age. The triumphs and defeats are there to study, if she is wise enough to realize that the time to learn how to be a happy older person is long before old age comes.

MORE HOSPITAL WELLS

Layne-New York Company of Pittsburgh has submitted the unofficial low bid of $23,560 for four new water wells at Warren State Hospital, according to the Associated Press. Two of the wells, at Farm Colony, have already been dug and are awaiting installation of pumps. When this is complete, the water line running from main hospital grounds to Farm Colony will be shut off (as promised private home owners on the old road some time ago. Shut-down will take place in about a month, according to hospital steward Marshall Bucklin.) The other two new wells will be drilled in the fall by the pump house on the old North Warren road. The two present wells there are 83 feet deep, supply about 500,000 gallons of water to the institution each day, says Bucklin.

Warren Man Lands 48½ Inch Muskies

It's vacationtime across America and with the idle hours comes recreation in a hundred different ways. Some prefer pure leisure while others relax with sport. One of the latter group is Lyle E. Shafer who, like a million of his brother Isaac Walton's in the land, poses proudly with a prize catch. Lyle, who lives at 344 East Fifth Avenue and is Fenelco general foreman, landed this 48½-inch muskie last evening about 8 o'clock after a 35-minute battle off Chautauqua Assembly Grounds. Like any angler could do, Lyle let the line get slack, finally gaffed his dinner with 200 feet of cord wrapping the prey. Vacationtime goes on. Photo by Kofod.

Notables of Stage And Screen Doing TV Commercials

By CHARLES MEEGER
New York (AP)—A "star," as defined along Madison Avenue these days, is one who is considered worthy of pitching a TV commercial. Have you noticed?
And now Variety, the trade journal of show business, reports that Bing Crosby himself has recently finished performing in four television commercials which push home appliances.
Many people complain about commercials and claim that they don't look at them, yet the advertising sponsor money is swinging heavily to well-known names plugging the product.
The list of noted sales ladies and gentlemen includes Julie London, Marge and Gower Champion, George Sanders, Henry Fonda, Douglas Fairbanks Jr., William Lundigan....
Performers from the Broadway musical, "Most Happy Fella", including Robert Weede, Jo Sullivan and Art Lund, have been doing commercials for a cigarmaker.
Why do they do commercials? Well, there's always cash, but some are not so much interested in cash and settle for products.
In Bing Crosby's case it's safe to assume he doesn't need money and it's even safer to assume he isn't doing it for a free load of home appliances.
Isn't it probable that he's doing it for the sake of what you might call exposure to the public? Crosby, still one of the biggest names in show business, has curtailed his public appearances. He works when he wants to and he does very little television.
To remain a big show business name, however, you have to keep your name before the public as much as possible.

Justice Jackson Is Honored by School at Frewsburg, N. Y.

Frewsburg — The Robert H. Jackson School of Frewsburg, named after the village's most distinguished citizen, will be open in September, 1958, according to announcement by Harry A. Murray, principal in the local school system. The elementary school is named after Associate Justice Jackson of the United States Supreme Court, who died in 1954. Justice Jackson was internationally known in the field of jurisprudence, having represented the United States at the war crimes trials in Nuremberg, Germany, following World War II. He is buried in a Frewsburg cemetery.

The new school building is being named after him, despite the fact that school district voters turned down such a proposal last year.

The new school, with 11 rooms, is expected to cost close to $600,000 and will handle about 350 students. Ground was broken for the new building which will be a combined cafeteria-auditorium, that will also serve as a gymnasium.

At the peak of the gold rush in 1900, Nome, Alaska, had a population of 20,000. Today its population is 2,000.

SHEFFIELD

Plentiful Food Features for August Include Such Staples As Fresh Fruits, Vegetables

New York—At the seashore or mountains, in a nearby park or your own patio, August is the month for outdoor living and eating. And August plentiful foods feature light, healthful fruits, and vegetables supplemented by necessary protein-rich foods, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Headlining the August abundance in the Northeast are turkeys. Low in fat, high in protein, and economical in price, the big birds are an ideal summer item. A few hours of cooking—and you have sandwich and salad material for several days, as well as the hot meals that good nutrition demands even when temperatures soar.

Another easy protein food is fresh fish. Landings are at seasonal peak in August, and popular varieties will be available. Halibut has the most widespread distribution.

Harvest of summer vegetables from market gardens of the Northeast is always heavy in August. And supplies will be increased by shipments from more distant commercial producing areas. Onions and celery will be especially plentiful, but there'll be an abundance of tomatoes, sweet corn, lettuce, green beans, cabbage, and beets, among others.

Although the peach crop in the Northeast is below average, most other peach areas have above-average production this year, and it's expected that local markets will be well supplied with fresh peaches. There's a large carryover of canned peaches, too.

The Northwest Bartlett pear crop is well above average, and shipments of high-quality fresh pears to eastern markets will be heavy during August. And, again, stocks of canned pears are larger than usual at this time of year.

For lemons and limes—in both fresh and processed forms—August is the height of the marketing season. Production of these refreshing citrus fruits is considerably above last season.

Plentiful supplies of milk and dairy products include the all-time summer favorite—ice cream. Then, too, butter and cheese rank high for sandwich fixings. Fresh, cool milk, flavored or in milk shakes or just "as is," is an ideal healthful refresher. Plenty of canned and dried nonfat milk for camping, too.

Rounding out the August plentiful foods are such sandwich and salad items as peanut butter and vegetable fats and oils.

Vice President Nixon Tries 'Senate Salad'

Vice President Richard M. Nixon is handed his plate of "Senate Salad" by Mrs. America of 1958 during a recent luncheon at the Capitol. "Senate Salad" was tossed in the largest—three feet wide and 14 inches deep—salad bowl in the world. Containing the products of eight states, the salad was topped by a garlic-type salad dressing mix.

A new salad, "Senate Salad," was created and served recently at the U. S. Capitol. Vice President Nixon was among the 35 Senators, innumerable Congressmen, Congressional staff members and press—totaling more than 500—who tried the new dish.

It is unusual for a new dish to be created in the nation's Capitol. Here's how it happened:

Nine Members of Congress who come from states that produce or manufacture ingredients important in salad making decided to serve an original salad to their colleagues on Capitol Hill.

The result was "Senate Salad." To meet the need of the occasion it turned out to be the largest of its kind ever served in the world.

The ingredients of "Senate Salad" were: ten heads of Arizona and California iceberg and romaine lettuce, 20 bunches of West Virginia water cress, 14 bunches of Texas green onions, 75 pounds of Maine lobster meat, 30 bunches of California celery, 156 New Jersey tomatoes, 78 California avocados, one gallon of California ripe olives, 40 Arizona grapefruit, two quarts of Michigan vinegar and 30 envelopes of a garlic-type salad dressing mix.

To serve the largest salad in the world, naturally, the largest salad bowl in the world was needed. The bowl, hand-turned and made of solid walnut, was three feet wide and 14 inches deep. Heaped, it held 320 main-course servings of delicious "Senate Salad." The salad fork and spoon each were three feet long and the crust for the eight quarts of salad dressing was 18 inches high.

The salad bowl was presented by Mrs. America of 1958 (Mrs. Linwood Findley of Arlington, Va.) to Vice President Nixon for the Senate Dining Room—and there is a good chance that "Senate Salad" will take its place at the Capitol alongside the already famous "Senate Bean Soup."

"Senate Salad" is worthy of a place on everyone's table. Of course, husbands, who are weekend chefs and wives who like to try new food dishes, need not buy 75 pounds of lobster to serve "Senate Salad."

To prepare the dish for a family of four, take a cup of bite-size pieces of iceberg lettuce, a cup of bite-size pieces of romaine lettuce, one half cup of bite-size pieces of water cress, one and one half cups of lobster meat, one cup of diced celery, a quarter cup of chopped green onions and stems, two medium tomatoes cubed, five large ripe olives sliced and sections from one half of a grapefruit.

The vinegar and salad oil to make the dressing should be used in the proportions required with one envelope of garlic-type salad dressing mix.

The ingredients should be placed in a large bowl and tossed lightly. The lobster claws should be used to garnish the top.

Arrested — Virginia Baker, 20, sits disconsolately in St. Petersburg, Fla., police headquarters. The sister of movie star Carroll (Baby Doll) Baker is being questioned on charges of possessing narcotics. Miss Baker, allegedly carrying a vial of marijuana, was picked up with a musician friend.

Talk of Congressman Gavin Before House on Federal Aid To School Construction Law

Following are remarks of Congressman L. H. Gavin, 23rd district, Pennsylvania, before the U. S. House of Representatives on H.R. 1, proposed federal aid to school construction legislation, July 23rd:

Mr. Chairman: I want to call to the attention of the House that Federal Aid Programs such as Federal Aid for School Construction, which we are considering today, are based on the fallacy that Uncle Sam is everybody's rich Uncle, whose pockets are inexhaustible, and that when you secure Federal Aid, you are receiving something for nothing. Why fool ourselves? We all pay the bill.

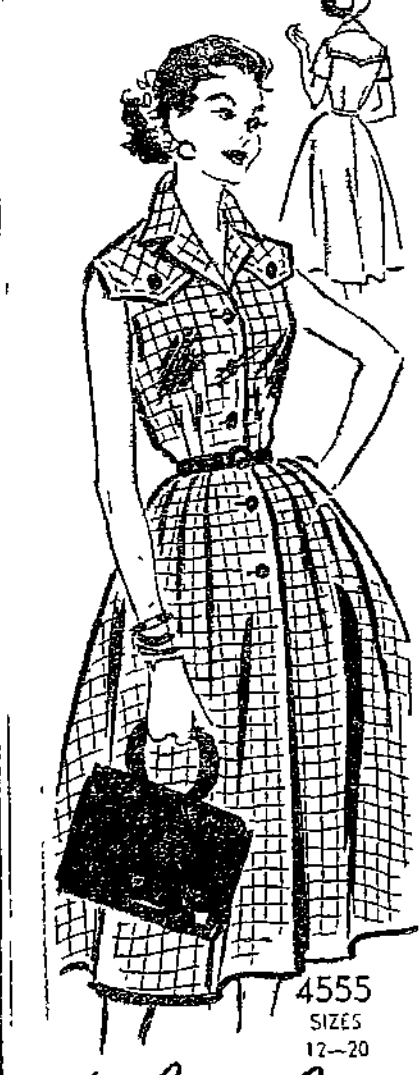

The truth is that we, his nephews and nieces, all support our Uncle Sam, who over the past 25 years has run up the biggest debt in all our history—approximately 275 billion dollars that must be paid—if it is ever paid—by the American people earning the money to pay the taxes to retire the debt—what a legacy to leave to future generations! If we paid it off at the rate of three billion dollars a year it would take ninety to one hundred years to pay the debt.

The trouble is that Uncle Sam has been spending our money, and in effect we have signed the notes for the hundreds of billions of dollars he owes.

The surest way to increase his debts and add to his gigantic debt is to embark on a new program of Federal Aid for School Construction.

The great American public has waked up to the fact that the only way to get relief from the taxes that burden our nation is to curb our spending for programs that can be better handled by municipalities and the respective states.

To me, the most obvious place to cut the budget is to cut out new proposed Programs of Federal Aid. I would start cutting by completely eliminating the proposed Program to provide one billion, five hundred million dollars for Federal Aid to School Construction over the next five years at a rate of three hundred million dollars a year.

Certainly, we need new school buildings, particularly in many fast-growing suburban areas. Schools are costly, and the way to make them more expensive still is to embark on a program to bring the Federal Government into the picture.

Every dollar spent on Federal School Aid Construction will come sooner or later, from the pockets of American taxpayers, whether it is under the supervision of the Federal or the State Government. As for me, I would rather have the states handling this program.

As in the case of every other Federal Aid Program, many of these dollars will be skimmed off the top to pay more Federal officials to distribute the payments, to administer the Program, to think up more rules and regulations which may well result in more delay and red tape.

It is the habit of Federal supervisors to make dollars shunk instead of stretch. If there is ever a necessity for stretching dollars, it exists now in making the tax dollar go as far as possible to build needed new schools.

Local responsibility and local self-government are keystones of the American way of life. Federal Aid is always accompanied by a greater or lesser degree of Federal control. It is the opening wedge towards having directors in Washington tell local school boards, superintendents, principals and teachers what they can do and what they can't do.

I believe that citizens in every community should take a good, hard look at their local school systems. There are many problems to solve, and they can best be solved on local levels.

Federal Grants can encourage extravagance. When school costs are not directly paid for by local taxes, but are transferred in part into the general Federal tax burden—cause and effect become confused—and construction can become unnecessarily expensive. If this bill is passed, Washington will tell local authorities what can and cannot be done, and let no one tell you otherwise.

What is true in the case of Federal Aid to School Construction holds true in regard to many other Federal Aid Programs. The same job can be done better, and done cheaper, on a state and local level.

A large part of the problem we have today is one of self-discipline on the part of the Government and on the part of the American people themselves. The Government within the Executive Branch must make a constant effort to curtail and eliminate non-essential expenditures. Special groups, rather than popular demand, are responsible for the push behind most Federal Aid Programs. The American people themselves must make an effort to curtail the constantly new and expanding demands upon the Federal Government for services, benefits and "free" money—for the people themselves must pay heavy taxes to the Federal Government before the Government can return part of it to the state, and the states return it to the counties and municipalities for these various programs.

Once a Program of Federal Aid is established, it almost invariably continues to grow and become more expensive.

To the outside groups which worked for its establishment and continue to support it, there is added another group within the Government. This is the group who administer the program—and who

Your money and your bank

Based on "USING YOUR BANK" by Dr. George L. Leffler, Professor of Finance, The Pennsylvania State University

A savings account differs considerably from a checking account. With a savings account, most people like to make regular deposits. Since relatively few withdrawals are permitted, savings accounts are fairly inactive compared to checking accounts. As a result, the money remains in the bank long enough so that the bank can pay interest on it. Law does not permit banks to pay interest on checking accounts.

Corporations are not permitted to have savings accounts. Societies and non-profit organizations may do so. Deposits and withdrawals are noted in the customer's passbook at the time they are made. Although the depositor cannot draw checks against a savings account, he may make either withdrawals or deposits by sending his passbook by mail.

Keep pressing for more money for it. Each bureau within an agency is ambitious to build a little empire—with more employees to supervise, with higher salaries for the top men, with more money to spend, at the expense of the taxpayers. Larger and larger budgets result—such as the huge spending program proposed this year.

But the time has come when the American public is justifiably fed up with all Federal Aid Programs, now realizing that we all pay the bill. In my opinion we can secure better results for our schools under the supervision of municipalities and states rather than under the direction of the Federal Government.

The Administration recently recommended that we look toward decentralization of Government—that we return to the states certain responsibilities. Here is one place we can make a good start—by rejecting this new proposed Increase in Fish Licenses to Start On September 1st.

The 75-cent increase in Pennsylvania fishing license fee will become effective September 1st, instead of January 1st. The new fee will be $3.25.

A Harrisburg dispatch says the State Fish Commission and the Revenue Department said yesterday that the lack of an effective date in the new law meant the increase would begin Sept. 1. State statute provides for new laws to become effective Sept. 1 when no date is written into the bill.

The commission anticipated that few 1957 licenses would be sold at the new rate. Most Pennsylvania fishermen have already purchased licenses for this year.

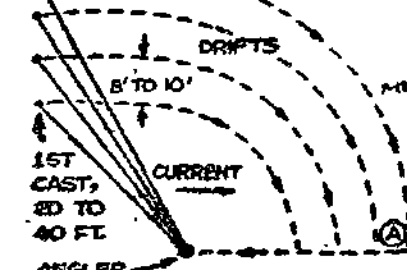

The commission also reported that nearly 41,000 fishermen caught more than 8,400 trout at Fishermen's Paradise along Spring Creek in Centre County during the nine-week paradise season that ended July 20.

The largest paradise catch was a rainbow trout measuring 29 1/2 inches and weighing 11 1/2 pounds caught by Fred Williams of Gettysburg.

He had worked as a dynamite blaster at a construction project.

Erie Police Seek Couple Who Pulled 'Pigeon Drop' Game

Erie (P)—Police said today they are searching for a man and woman accused of pulling the "pigeon drop" confidence game on an Erie woman.

Officers identified the victimized woman as Mrs. Velma Esties, about 50. Police quoted her as telling the following story:

While shopping in a store yesterday Mrs. Esties was approached by a man and woman who said they had found a wallet containing $2,100. They said they would give Mrs. Esties $700 of the money if she would deposit $900 with them to show her good faith.

Mrs. Esties withdrew $900 from her postal savings account and turned it over to the woman who said she would talk to the man, identified as "Mr. Anton," and return with Mrs. Esties' $900 plus the promised $700. Mrs. Esties waited several hours then notified police after the couple failed to appear.

Cardinals On Threshold Of First Place After Explosive Win Streak Since July First

By ED WILKS
By The Associated Press
The St. Louis Cardinals, usually dead ducks by Aug. 1, are camped on the threshold of first place in the National League today after an explosive July run.
And they've done it the hard way, coming from behind in half their 20 July victories and winning four of five extra-inning battles.
In third place, 2½ games back on June 30, the Cards were 20-10 in July for a .667 percentage—and except for a suspended game at Pittsburgh which they led 11-2 in the ninth would be 21-10 and in first place instead of second, two percentage points behind Milwaukee.
The Cards were at it again last night, coming from behind to whip the New York Giants 5-1 for their fifth straight while Milwaukee clung to the top spot with a 4-2 job on Pittsburgh for four in a row.
Third-place Brooklyn, matching the Cards' 20-10 record for July, swept a double-header at Chicago. Reliever Ed Roebuck was credited with both victories as ninth-inning rallies beat the Cubs 3-2 and 2-1 to leave the Dodgers two games behind.
In the American League, first-place New York scored a 2-0, 3-4 double-header sweep against Kansas City. The second-place Chicago White Sox nailed Washington 6-5. Detroit rapped Boston 5-3 and Cleveland beat Baltimore 4-0 behind relief ace Ray Narleski.
The Cards bagged it after Hank Sauer who had three of the seven hits off Herb Wehner, homered the Giants into a fifth-inning lead. Al Dark, who was 4-for-4 and drove in two runs, and Wehner, then hit RBI singles in the bottom of the fifth and the Cards were off.
Milwaukee rolled on solo homers by Red Schoendienst and Johnny Logan against loser Bob Burke, then locked it up with two in the sixth on four singles. Bob Hazle's double and an error. Bob Buhl won his 13th.

SPORTORIAL

With the 11th annual World Series, August 21-23, 1957 as the prime objective, Little League Baseball's national all-star tournament swings into high gear this week in hundreds of communities throughout the United States and Canada. Elimination play on the local level will occupy teams through the first week of August. Sectional winners will play off for state titles on August 8 and 9 with survivors moving into New York, Chicago, Louisville and San Francisco to compete for regional honors on August 16 and 17. The four regional winners, (North, East, South and West) will advance into the World Series, which opens on Wednesday, August 21. In first round pairings, the North will face the West and the South will engage the East. The championship game will be played on Friday, August 23 at 3:00 p. m., following a consolation contest between the first round losers on Thursday. The National Tournament is conducted on a sudden death elimination basis among all-star teams selected by participating leagues. Rules governing this selection stipulate that only those boys whose age is 11 or 12 years, may qualify for the league squad of 14 players. Pennsylvania teams have won three World Series titles since the inception of the tournament in 1948. Roswell, Mexico, is the defending champion, having defeated Delaware Township, New Jersey in the 1956 final.

The racing program, at Skyline Speedway, this Sunday evening will be packed full of extras, with the ten event card to be highlighted by the running of the annual Midseason, Late Model Championship. The areas top drivers will be competing for four handsome trophies, in the fifty lap Championship "go". The trophies are of graduated size, with the largest to be awarded to the winner, while the other three will go to the runner-up and to the 3rd and 4th finishers. As an added feature, each fan will be given a card on which he or she may list the names of the four drivers that they think will win these trophies. The fan who lists these names, in the proper finishing order, will receive a cash prize of two hundred dollars. In the event that more than one fan lists them correctly, the prize money will be divided evenly. In addition to the Late Model Championship, the Old Stock Cars will return to this Sugar Grove track, in separate events climaxed by a twenty lap feature. As usual, a large number of these cars are entered and fans can expect a lot of thrills. The Championship race will attract such well known Independent Racing Association drivers as Jamestown's Joe Sauer, winner of last Sunday's feature, runner-up Dean Layfield, of Wellsville, Jim Flebekorn, the Randolph stock car pilot, who led that feature for more than ten laps, popular Emory Mahan, Warren, who has several feature wins to his credit this season; Bob Duell, of Frewsburg, Johnny "Madman" McGinley who hails from Clarion. Francis Burchard, Guy Mills, Ken Johnson, Jamestown; Paul Wilson, also of Jamestown, Max Thiope, Sugar Grove; Bill Petty, Brookway and many more. This star studded field can only mean an evening of top notch stock car racing. The first event, of this stellar program which carries a $1200 guaranteed purse, is scheduled to hit the track at 8:30 p. m.

HOT STOVE LEAGUE GAMES

Mack's News downed Interlectric 7-4 in the Cadet league on Beatty last evening. McCarty had a double for Mack's, Albaugh, winning pitcher Cederquist had a triple and a double, Colvin, triple for Interlectric Caldwell, Cederquist Colvin, Thompson, Giddens, battery.
Struthers Wells defeated Hammonds 13-4 on the West Side playground. Brindis, Suppa tripled for Struthers, Love, double. Falvo was winning pitcher.
Struthers Wells beat Walker Creamery 12-8. Bonavia, Greco, Scheckler (2), homers, Falvo, triple, Brindis, Creola doubles. Face was winning pitcher.

RUB OF THE GREEN—Third basemen make split decisions just like umpires. Jerv Coleman of the home club has no play on a swift runner, so waits until a topped grounder is hit. After all, what can a runner do?

Inept Handling Of Commercial During Fight Is Regretted

Flint, Mich. (AP)—The Buick Division of General Motors Corp. apologized yesterday to the nation's fight fans for what it called the inept handling of commercials during the Patterson-Jackson heavyweight title fight Monday night.

A statement issued by Edward P. Ragsdale, general manager of Buick and a GM vice president, said: "As a fight fan myself, I was incensed at the bad timing of the commercial as the fight ended. Although we had no control over the broadcast itself, as general manager of Buick I can assure those interested that this will not happen again in a public service telecast by Buick."

Ragsdale said his apology was prompted by "numerous letters and telegrams of complaints from fight fans."

The commercial was switched in almost immediately after Referee Ruby Goldstein gave the bout to Floyd Patterson on a TKO over the battered Tommy Hurricane Jackson. The official verdict from the ring was missed by television viewers.

The fight was nationally telecast—NBC.

Gavilan Earns New Shot at Title Held By Carmen Basilio

Miami Beach, Fla. (AP)—Kid Gavilan, king of the welterweights from 1951 to 1954, hankered today for another shot at the title now worn by Carmen Basilio—and apparently has earned it.

Gavilan put on one of the greatest exhibitions of his career before a nationwide television audience and 3,621 ringside spectators last night to gain a unanimous decision over Gaspar (Indian) Ortega, a game battler from Mexico, Mexico, in 10 bruising rounds.

"Gavilan was terrific," said Api Rodriguez, manager of Ortega, who conceded, "most certainly we lost the fight."

Rodriguez said Gavilan "never hurt Ortega" but the 31-year-old Cuban tossed a ton of leather at the bobbing, weaving Mexican and won at least seven rounds on every scorecard. There were no knock-downs.

"Pumpkin" Takes Second Best of Winners Title

Theresa Sperry's English Toy Spaniel "Vica Peter Pumpkin" took Best of Winners prize Saturday at the Lackawanna Kennel Club Dog Show.

This was "Peter's" second major show award and only the second time he had been shown.

Miss Sperry, who resides at 414 Hazel Street, is planning to show in the Kentucky circuit over Labor Day, and in various other shows. It seems probable that dog fanciers will be hearing more of this up and coming champion.

TRIPLE PLAY IN GAME AT HOSPITAL

A rarity in softball or hardball games occurred last evening during a game between the Doctors-Social Service Workers and one of Bill Massa's patients' teams when the Doctors' infield pulled a triple play—from short to second to first. It was the first time in the memory of oldest spectators that one has been witnessed on a Hospital diamond.

TWO-WAY HEAT—Jim Bunnings cools off in the dugout. The Detroit recruit right-hander is hotter than the weather, thanks to his slider.

Buc Manager Pulls Clown Stunt to Irk Umps in Milwaukee

By CHUCK CAPALDO
 Milwaukee (AP)—Manager Bobby Bragan of Pittsburgh, apparently bent on bringing to a head his running feud with an umpiring team headed by Frank Dascoli, sauntered onto the field during last night's Pirates-Braves game sipping orange soda through a straw.

The stumpy, gum-chewing skipper of the seventh-place Buccos took his unscheduled stroll in the fifth inning minutes after being banished by Umpire Stan Landes for holding his nose to show how he felt about one of Landes' calls.

A County Stadium crowd of 24,522, at first stunned by Bragan's antics, guffawed as he offered each of the four men in blue a sip from a pint carton of orange drink.

"It was my major league debut as a clown," Bragan said afterwards in the clubhouse. "I'm fed up with these guys. They won't even listen to a legitimate complaint."

"He's a busher, a clown and a comedian," Dascoli said heatedly while trying without much success to keep his emotions in check.

"By pulling that stunt he vindicates anything that ever happened to him."

It was Bragan's second brush with Dascoli, Landes, Frank Secory and Bill Baker in as many nights. His first, which occurred Tuesday night when he wired National League President Warren Giles a request that Dascoli's team be "broken up" and absorbed by three other crews, hadn't even run its course.

Before last night's game Bragan, who pulled some zany stunts during his minor league managerial career such as taking a nap at home plate, said he hadn't received Giles' reply to his telegram.

First Aid Tent At The Gerry Rodeo Is Being Kept Busy

Gerry—If there are any aspirant "cowboys" in the Jamestown area who, trapped by the luring call of the color and excitement of the ranchland sport, have elected to pin their star on this call to fame and riches, hark ye well the Black Diamond Rodeo now in progress at Gerry's Rodeo City, and do not overlook the muted violins in the background.

For that matter any rodeo fan and the public in general who think this rodeo business is a Pullman seat on the gravy-train, a big pile of loot for a few seconds work, for a living, there is a lesson to be learned right here at Gerry, and undoubtedly several job openings too.

The Black Diamond show is having man-power troubles, as a matter of fact, the rannies are currently being wheeled into the first aid tent and nearby hospitals at a faster clip than their unscathed compadres can clamber over the chutes for the next ride. At the moment, the big problem of nearly a ton of Brahma beefsteak who can't seem to toss his rider without stomping him into the dust and the subsequent hospital bed.

Of No. 12 began two weeks ago on Bud Myers and put him in a cast in a Dayton, Ohio, hospital with a broken leg. Tuesday night, the same bull admitted Rusty McCarthy to the Jamestown General Hospital in a similar condition for the first major misfortune at Gerry. He apparently is having so much fun disfiguring riders he tried again, Wednesday night and succeeded in getting McCarthy a roommate, Carl Kindberg, with the same affliction. Myers has rejoined the show at Gerry in a walking cast and McCarthy is expected up in a week.

Don't for a moment get the mistaken impression these boys are "boomers," they're all good riders, but to date the stock and Ol' No. 12 in particular, are just a little tougher.

According to rodeo officials, the Black Diamond show has averaged 1½ broken bones among its riders each week since it opened this year and, as of today, they have a grand total of 14 riders reclining in various hospitals scattered across the country in plaster pajamas.

PICTURE OF A MAN INSURING HIS LIFE

Yes, this man...like hundreds of thousands of Americans...is taking out a different kind of life insurance. He has an intelligent concern about cancer and knows that early detection may mean the difference between life and death.

That's why, once every year, he goes to his doctor for a thorough medical checkup. This way, cancer...the "silent enemy"...can be detected in its earliest stages, when chances for cure are most favorable.

Last year, 245,000 people lost their lives to cancer...many of them needlessly, because they went to their doctors too late.

That's why we urge all men to make an annual checkup. Including a chest x-ray, a habit for life...your life.
